

Dr.C.L Yadav

Asst. Prof.(Guest)

Department Of English

MLT College Saharsa

(A Constituent unit of BNMU Laloo Nagar Madhepura)

Mob No-9939629800

9431803273

Email Id:- chhotalaly@gmail.com

4th Nov. 2020

FOR D P II (English-Hons)

Explanation :-

"Take that, and He that doth the ravens feed
Yea, providently eaters for the sparrow,
Be comfort to my age."

These lines have been taken from "As you like it" by William Shakespeare. In these touching words Old Adam offers ~~his~~ his life's saving to Orlando to enable him to run the wrath of his brothers & begin his life elsewhere under better conditions.

The note is stately dignity & almost religious solemnity of the words of Adam who had grown gray in the service of a kind & considerate master. Adam refers to two of the most striking utterances of Christ to his followers about being unworthy. He said "Take no thought of the morrow, for the heavenly Father will provide for you all"

This is the important statement which shows the kindness of Old Adam to Orlando.

By
Dr. Chhote Lal Yadav
Dept. of English
MLT College Saharsa